Transform your career - graduate with two masters degrees in two years by completing a Master of International Relations in combination with a Master of International Law.

The University of Western Australia, through the cross-disciplinary expertise of the Faculty of Law and the Faculty of Arts, is providing a one of a kind opportunity for graduates to attain two sought after qualifications through the combined Master of International Relations and Master of International Law.

Suited to both legal and non-legal professionals, students acquire both qualifications in a shorter time frame than if undertaking them individually through the granting of advanced standing of key relevant units.

Master of International Relations

The Master of International Relations is a professionally-oriented postgraduate degree that equips graduates with the advanced academic training and essential practical skills required to gain employment and operate effectively in a range of careers that require expertise about our complex, dynamic and globalised world.
